

Maria Mamaux will be the new Director of Instruction for Cy-Fair High School. She has spent all 17 years of her educational career in CFISD. She taught for eight years at Dean Middle School before serving three years as an Assistant Principal at Truitt Middle School. She then took over her current role as the Director of Instruction at Hamilton Middle School, a position she has held for the last 6 years.

Ms. Mamaux received her Bachelor of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies from Texas A & M University and her Master of Education from Prairie View A & M University. She is certified in Elementary Reading (1-6), Elementary Math (1-8), Elementary Self-Contained (1-8), and as an EC-12 Principal.